RE: G-Base discontinuation

Effective Date: Aug 1st 2015

Effective 8.1.15, OEI will be discontinuing the G-Base table line.

After August 1, if you have a project that specifies the G-Base or a project with existing bases please contact your OEI Major Account Specialist or Customer Service Representative to check availability.

OEI will be replacing the G-Base with the H-Base. New literature is in process and your Major Accounts Specialists will review with you in the next few months.

Regards,

Bill
