RE: Sophic and Guide seating discontinuation

Effective Date: July 1st 2015

OEI will be discontinuing the Sophic and Guide wood seating lines effective 7.1.15.

After July 1 OEI will take orders until our stock is depleted. Please contact your OEI Account Manager or Customer Service Representative for stock levels.

Over the past few months OEI developed knockdown programs for our Perth and Bantam wood seating lines. Both products contain options similar to Sophic and Guide. If you require additional information regarding either of these product lines please contact your Account Manager, Customer Service Representative or view our website at www.oei-inc.com

Regards,

Bill
